THE

SOUTH-CAROLINA GAZETTE,

Containing the freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtick.

MONDAY, January 7th, 1745. [Numb. 563]

The following Pieces taken from the Queen of Hungary's Anſwer to the King of Pruſſia's Maſeſto, deſerve the Attention of the Publick; inaſmuch as they plainly diſcover the Injuſtice of the Attack on her Hungarian Majeſty, and the true Deſign of the Invaſion in Bohemia.

Convention of Klein Schnellendorff.

I THE underwritten Earl of Hynford, Miniſter Plenipotentiary of his Majeſty the King of Great Britain, having been Witneſs to what his Majeſty the King of Pruſſia had the Goodneſs to declare, with his own Mouth, and upon his Royal Word, to Marſhal Count Neuperg, in the Preſence of General Lentulus, and to what Marſhal Neuperg declar'd in the Name of her Majeſty the Queen of Hungary and Bohemia, do, by theſe Preſents, certify, upon the publick Faith, and the Duty of my Miniſtry, that on both Sides it was agreed, Primo. That the King of Pruſſia is at Liberty to take the Town of Neiſs by Way of Siege.

2. That the Commandant of the Town of Neiſs ſhall have Orders to ſuſtain a Siege of 15 Days, and then to give up the ſaid Place to the Troops of his Pruſſian Majeſty.

3. That the Garriſon of Neiſs, with every Thing appertaining to it, ſhall march out with the Honours of War: That they ſhall be ſupply'd with the neceſſary Carriages to the Frontiers of Moravia: That no Perſon belonging to the Garriſon ſhall be either perſuaded or forc'd to ſerve amongſt his Pruſſian Majeſty's Troops; and that it ſhall be free for thoſe of the Town, who ſhall have a Mind to retire, to follow the ſaid Garriſon in all Safety.

4. That the caſt Artillery, which is in the Town of Neiſs, and upon the Ramparts, ſhall remain to her Majeſty the Queen of Hungary and Bohemia, and ſhall be faithfully reſtor'd to her upon a Treaty, or a future Peace.

5. That after the taking of the Town of Nieſs, his Majeſty the King of Pruſſia ſhall not, any longer, act offenſively, neither againſt her Majeſty the Queen of Hungary and Bohemia, nor againſt the King of England, as Elector of Hanover, nor againſt any of the preſent Allies of the Queen, 'till a general Peace.

6. That the King of Pruſſia ſhall never demand more of her Hungarian Majeſty, than the Lower Sileſia, with the Town of Neiſs.

7. That Endeavours ſhall be us'd to make a definitive Treaty, towards the End of the Month of next December.

8. That Marſhal Count Neuperg declar'd, in the Name of her Majeſty the Queen of Hungary and Bohemia, that her Hungarian Majeſty will, without any Difficulty, give up to his Majeſty the King of Pruſſia, by the Treaty to be made towards the End of next December, all the Lower Sileſia to the River of Neiſs, the Town of Nieſs included; and on the other Side of the Oder to the ordinary Limits of the Dutchy of Oppelen, with all Sovereignty and Independance whatſoever.

9. That upon the 16th of this preſent Month, the ſaid Marſhal Neuperg ſhall retire, with his whole Army, towards Moravia, and from thence, wherever he pleaſes.

10. That the Caſtle of Ottmachaw ſhall be evacuated at the ſame Time that the Queen's Army ſhall retire.

11. That it ſhall be free for Marſhal Neuperg to remove into Moravia, or elſewhere, the Magazines which he has erected at the Foot of the Mountains, 'till the 26th of the preſent Month of October.

12. That a Part of the King of Pruſſia's Army ſhall take Winter Quarters in the Upper Sileſia, till the End of the Month of April, 1742.

13. That neither the Principality of Teſchen, the Town of Troppau, in the Country, beyond the River of Oppau, nor the high Mountains elſewhere in the Upper Sileſia, together with the Lordſhip of Hennerſtoff, ſhall be compris'd in thoſe Winter Quarters: and that the Marſhal Neuperg ſhall leave a Battalion and ſome Huſſars, for the Garriſon in the ſaid Town of Troppau.

14. That his Majeſty's Troops ſhall not demand of the Inhabitants of the Country, any Thing but Lodging and Forage.

15 That the King of Pruſſia's Troops ſhall not raiſe Contributions nor Money, upon any of the States of the Queen of Hungary.

16, That no Perſon ſhall be enliſted againſt his Inclination, upon any Pretence whatever.

17. That on both Sides ſome ſmall Parties ſhall be ſent out, in order to continue Hoſtilities pro Forma; and that, during the Winter it ſhall be agreed in what Manner to behave the Spring following, in Caſe the Treaty, or

or the general Peace shall not be settled before that time.

18. That the present Articles, which have been agreed upon, shall be kept inviolably secret, according to what I the underwritten Earl of Hindford, the Marshal Count Neuperg, and Major General Lentulus, have promis'd upon our Parole of Honour to the King of Prussia, upon the Demand of his Majesty.

In Witness whereof, I have sign'd these present Eighteen Articles, and seal'd them with my Coat of Arms, upon the Requisition of his Majesty the King of Prussia, and of the said M Count Neuperg, at the Castle of Klein Schnellendorff this 29th Day of October, 1742.

Hyndford (L.S.)

The Court of Vienna looks upon the Conduct of the King of Prussia as a Violation of the first Article of the Treaty of Breslaw, and affirms, that the Court of Berlin cannot justify the sending of any Assistance to the Queen's Enemies on any Pretence whatsoever.

Extract of a Letter from Dunkirk, dated September 8.

'Fifteen Hundred People are employ'd daily to raise Fortifications, who have already made seven compleat Batteries, and are working hard to finish seven more. There are no less than 20,000 small-Arms lodg'd here, but for what Purpose is kept secret; our Magazines are likewise full of Gun powder, and other Military Stores.

Lower Elbe, Sept. 14.

All our Letters from Brandenbourg insinuate, that they are not very easy at the Approach of the Russians, from whom they are apprehensive of an Invasion.

Letter from Hamburgh, September 14.

Some private Letters from Moscow advise, that the British and Austrian Ministers having made very pressing Instances to the Empress, before she set out for Kiow, in order to obtain the Succours which she has promis'd to the Queen of Hungary, her Imperial Majesty immediately caus'd Orders to be dispatch'd to all the Officers of the Troops quarter'd in Livonia and Courland to hold themselves in readiness to march.

From the Camp of the Allies near Lisle, September 13

We are inform'd, that the Army of Marshal Count de Saxe has been reinforc'd by the 15,000 Regular Troops, that were posted near Dunkirk; and by the like Number, that were encamp'd near Duppe, for the Defence of the Coasts of Normandy. That General has actually summon'd Baron Keiseghem, Governor of Ghent, to deliver up every Thing within the Place, belonging to the English, in the Space of a Week, on Pain of suffering Military Execution.

Vienna, Sept. 2.

A Placard is publish'd, as is assur'd, by the King of Prussia, forbidding all the Bohemians to treat the Queen in any Manner, or on any Occasion whatever, in the Quality, or by the Title of their Sovereign, and commanding them on the contrary, to treat the Emperor as their lawful King, and both upon the severest Penalties, even, as is affirm'd, of Death.

Francfort, Sept. 10.

This Day the Minister of the King Great-Britain, Elector of Hanover, presented to the Dictature of the Dyet, a Memorial tending to set forth the Rights which the Electoral House of Hanover pretends to have to the Succession of East-Friezland, and at the same time desiring the States of the Empire to suspend their Vote of that Principality, until this Matter be decided. The Prussian Minister has dispatch'd a Courier to the King, to give him Notice of this Incident, which makes a great Noise here, and causes a great Stir and Bustle among the Members of the Dyet.

We have just receiv'd Advice from Dresden, that while the King of Prussia was gone from Misnia he receiv'd a Courier from Moscow, whose Dispatches we are inform'd, contain'd nothing but Remonstrances concerning his Breach of Treaties with the Queen of Hungary, and his Behaviour toward that Princess, in entering the Heart of her Dominions in a hostile Manner.

CHARLES-TOWN, Jan. 7.

On Monday last, a Sloop with a Flag of Truce, arrived here, with 4 English Prisoners from St. Augustine.

Yesterday arrived a Vessel from Providence, in 7 Days, the Master whereof informs us, that several small Prizes have been lately brought in there, and a large Schooner from the Havanna to St. Augustine, by Capt. Walker in a Privateer belonging to that Island, she was laden with live Stock and Provisions, and Letters were found on board from the Governor of the Havanna, intimating, that Admiral Don Roderigo de las Torres with Four Spanish Ships of War, had sail'd for Europe, with upwards of 10,000,000 of Pieces of Eight; and that Three stout Privateers, (one of 36 Twelve Pounders, another of 16 Nine Pounders, and the third of 12 Six Pounders) well mann'd, were sail'd to cruize on these Coasts; and, amongst many other Things, enumerated every Particular of the late dreadful Hurricane at Jamaica, with the greatest Exactness, adding, that the Spaniards would probably now take this favourable Juncture to make an Attempt upon that Island, while the Naval Force there was so much weakened, and before a Reinforcement could arrive from England.
